Core Goals 2012-2017

A University Center of Excellence

500 University Ave. W.
Minot, ND 58707

NDCPD is a university center of excellence in developmental disabilities education, research and service. It is one of 67 centers nationwide in a network to improve community services, research, personnel training and information dissemination regarding the lives of citizens with developmental disabilities.

NDCPD STAFF develop programs that demonstrate exemplary services, influence policy and regulations, train high quality professionals, conduct research, and deliver quality information on developmental disabilities. This work is done through multiple private and public partnerships across the state.

NDCPD's Goals

Goal 1: Inclusive communities

NDCPD will increase ND communities' capacity to support individuals with disabilities and their families.

Goal 2: Workforce development

NDCPD will provide effective pre-service and out-reach training that will increase the number of, and quality of direct support and other professionals in the human services and other related fields.

Goal 3: Self-determination

NDCPD will support individuals with disabilities and their families/ caregivers in ways that maximize their capacity, strengths and abilities to exercise greater choice and self-determination.

Goal 4: Healthy citizens

NDCPD will improve systems and services of healthcare for persons with disabilities.
