

NDCPD Conference Participants
PICTURED LEFT TO RIGHT: Dr. Evan Borisinkoff, Ms. Rebecca Daigneault, Dr. Ann Beste-Guldborg, Ms. Linda Madsen, Ms. Hilory Liccini, Ms. ZoeAnn Winkler, Dr. Lori Garnes, Ms. Bailey Laducer and Dr. Brent Askvig

Advocates Leading their Lives (ALL) Network Leadership

PICTURED LEFT TO RIGHT – Ms. Julie Horntvedt (ND State Council on Developmental Disabilities), Mr. Steve Beard (ALL Board President), Mr. Alan Becker (ALL Board Vice Pres) and Dr. Brent Askvig (NDCPD Executive Director) presented a concurrent session on self advocacy issues, challenges and successes. NDCPD’s ALL project is funded by the ND State Council on Developmental Disabilities.

Dr. Evan Borisinkoff presented a poster titled, “Building the Capacity for Inclusive Education in Nairobi Kenya Using Universal Design for Instruction and Learning and Inclusive Education Strategies.”

Ms. Bailee Laducer and Ms. Rebecca Daigneault presented a poster titled “Building Cultural Competence and Workforce Diversity.”

The presentation resulted from NDCPD’s Diversity Fellowship project. This project’s goal was to increase workforce development and service impact in the Native American population. For 2016-2017, Bailee Laducer was named our Diversity Fellow.

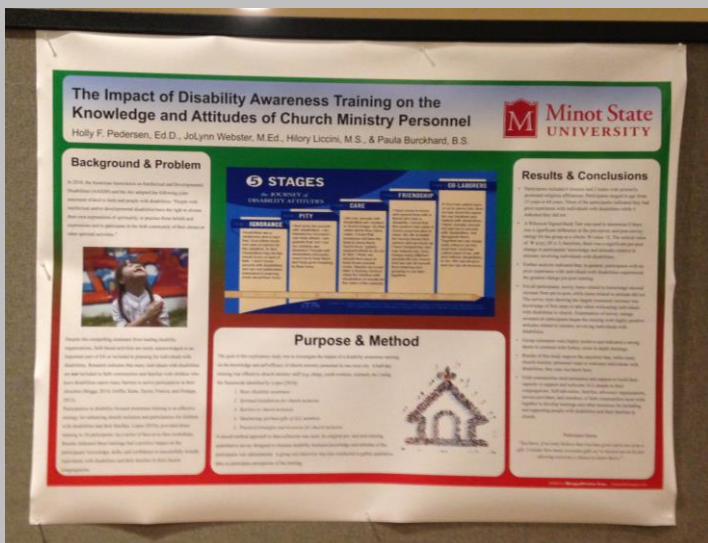

Congratulations Rebecca and Bailee!

Dr. Karl Elling Ellingsen was awarded the International Service Award at the 2017 AUCD Conference. Karl is a professor at the National Institute on Intellectual Disabilities and Community which is housed at the Norwegian University of Science and Technology (<https://www.ntnu.edu/>) in Trondheim Norway. NTNU has AUCD affiliate status. Karl has collaborated with NDCPD staff for several years researching disabilities topics.

Congratulations Karl!

Ms. Hilory Liccini presented a poster titled, “The Impact of Disabilities Awareness Training on the Knowledge and Attitudes of Church Ministry Personnel.” This project was a joint effort of staff from Minot State University’s Special Education department and NDCPD.